

Fulltime Eighth Grade Language Arts and History Teacher Mother Seton Academy, Baltimore, Maryland

Mother Seton Academy is an all-scholarship, Nativity-Miguel model Catholic middle school dedicated to the education of boys and girls from low-income families in Baltimore. Through small class sizes, a rigorous academic environment, and an extended day program, the school provides a holistic education to at-risk students in order to prepare them for future success in high school, college, and the work force.

Mother Seton Academy seeks a full time eighth grade teacher for the 2009-2010 school year.

Responsibilities include:

Teach two sections each of eighth grade U.S. History, English (grammar, writing), and literature; foster an environment that creates learning and respect; create lesson plans according to outlined curriculum; integrate technology into lessons; supervise homework two evenings per week; collaborate with partner teacher and colleagues.

Qualifications:

- Commitment to the mission of Mother Seton Academy and Nativity-Miguel Network Schools.
- Bachelor's degree or higher.
- Experience working with urban youth, especially middle school students, a plus.
- Teaching experience valued.
- Effective communication skills.
- Flexibility and sense of humor.
