Father Pat

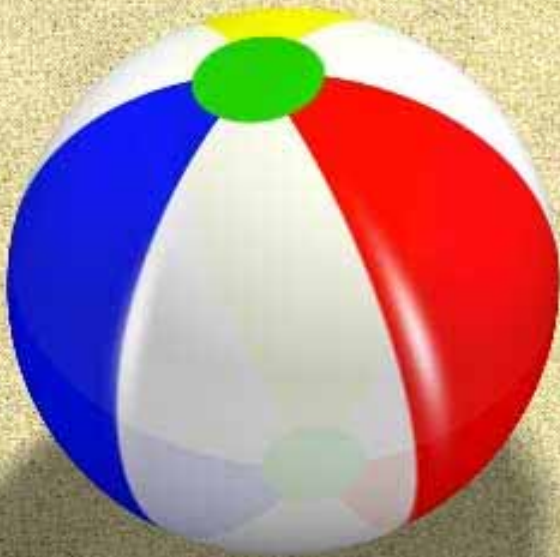

GOES

HOLLYWOOD

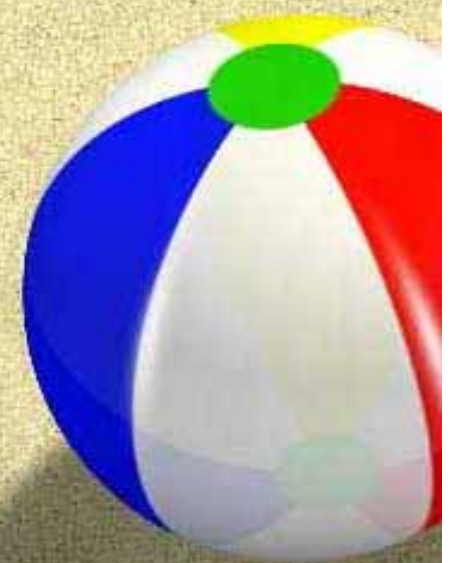

When we learned Father Pat was leaving us for Hollywood, (Florida that is) we were concerned as to how he would adjust to his new environment.
After all, Hollywood is no Dayton.

But we're pleased to see that he has already begun to assimilate into the culture of his new home.

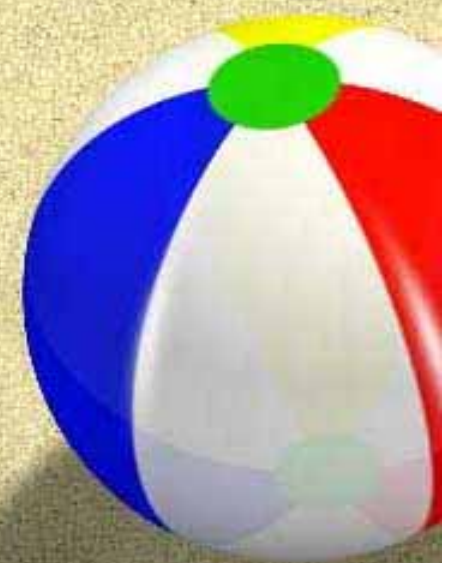

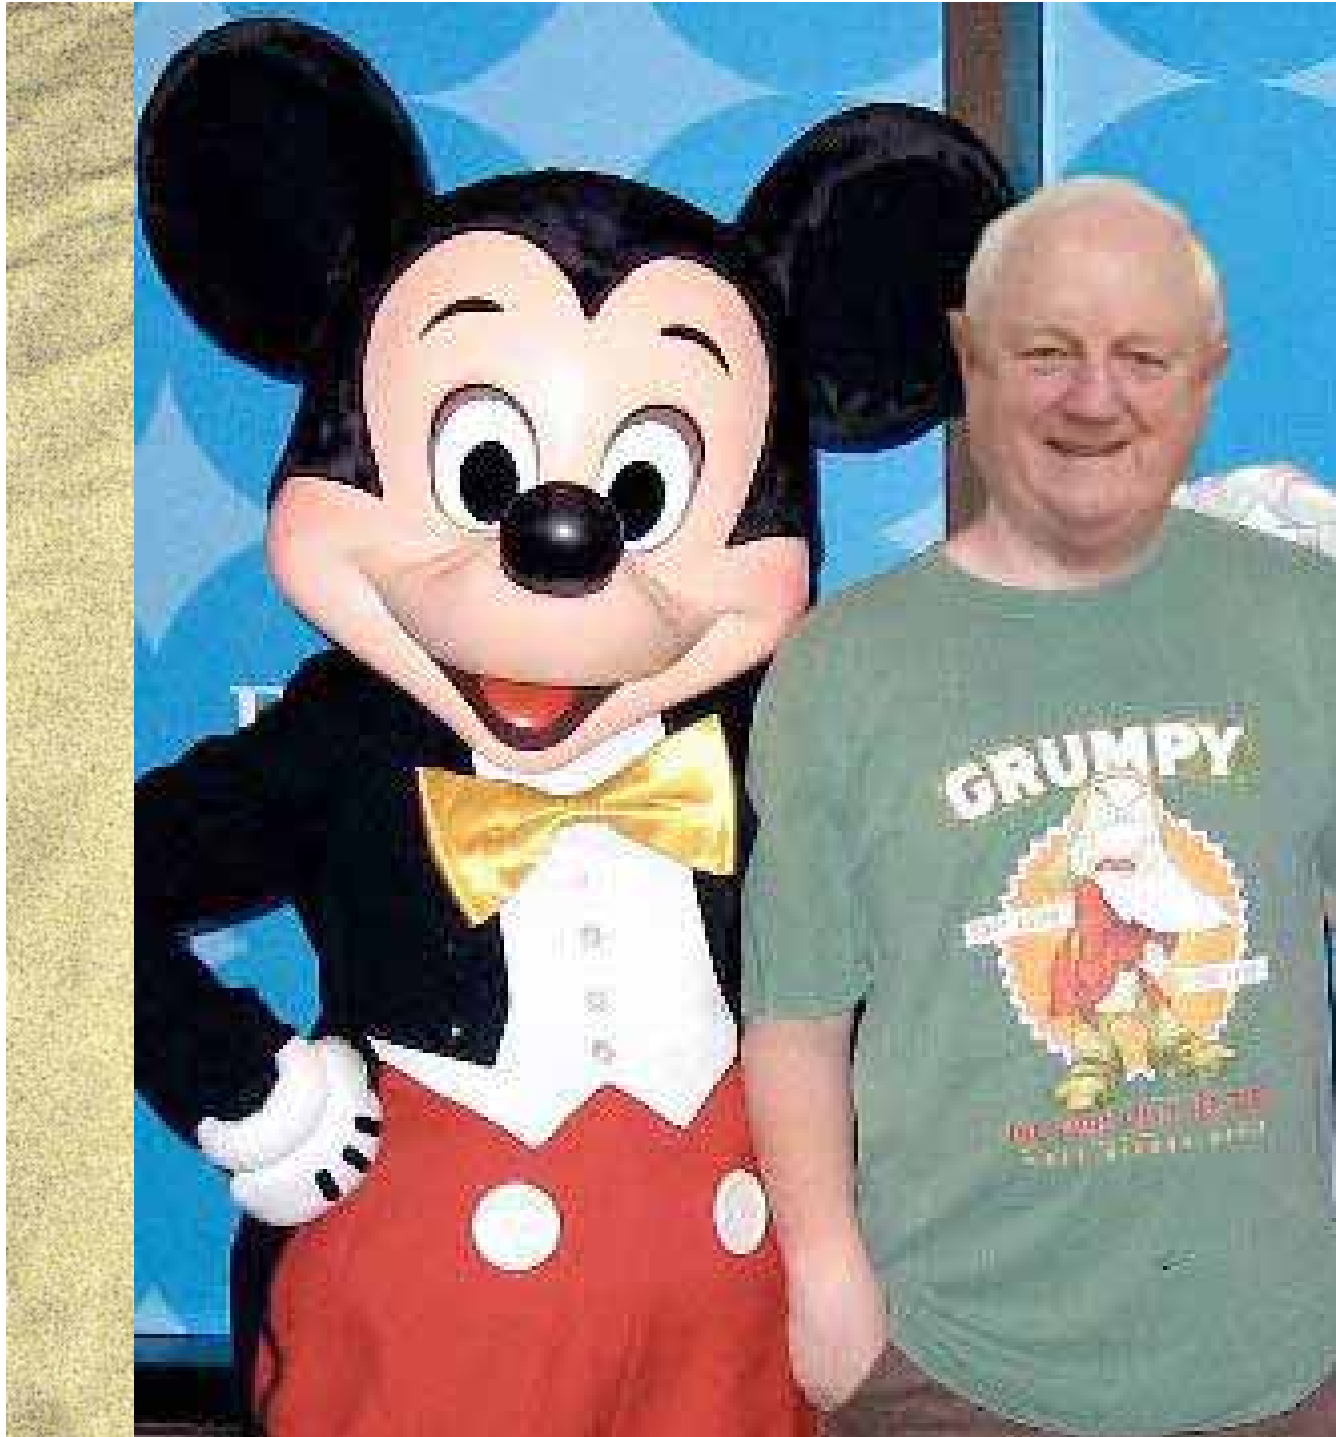

Er, culture...

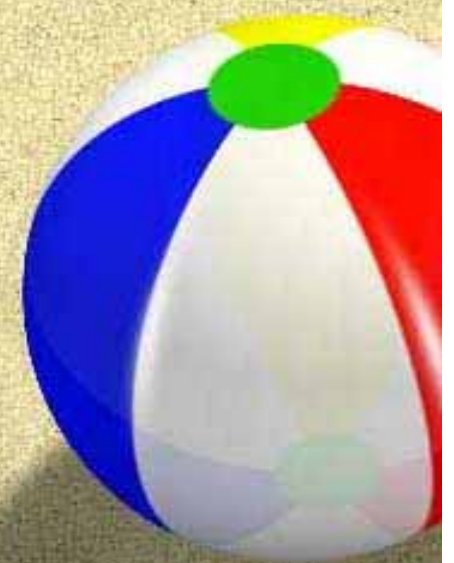

And of course, culture...

...and local custom.

He has exhibited
leadership...

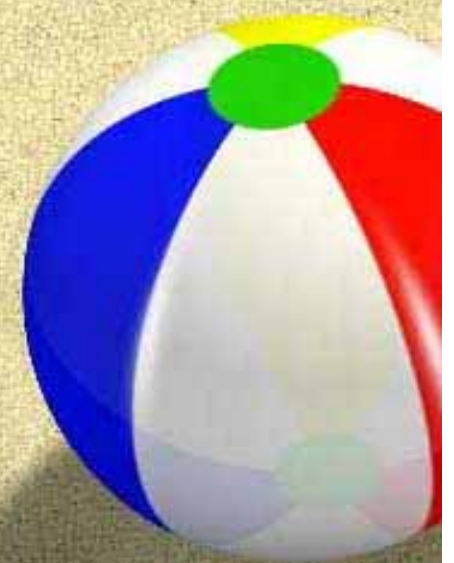

...and been supportive
of others.

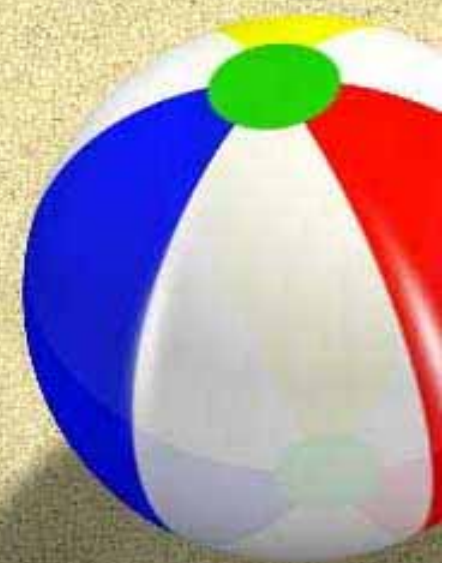

He has also gotten into the Florida lifestyle, indulging in water sports...

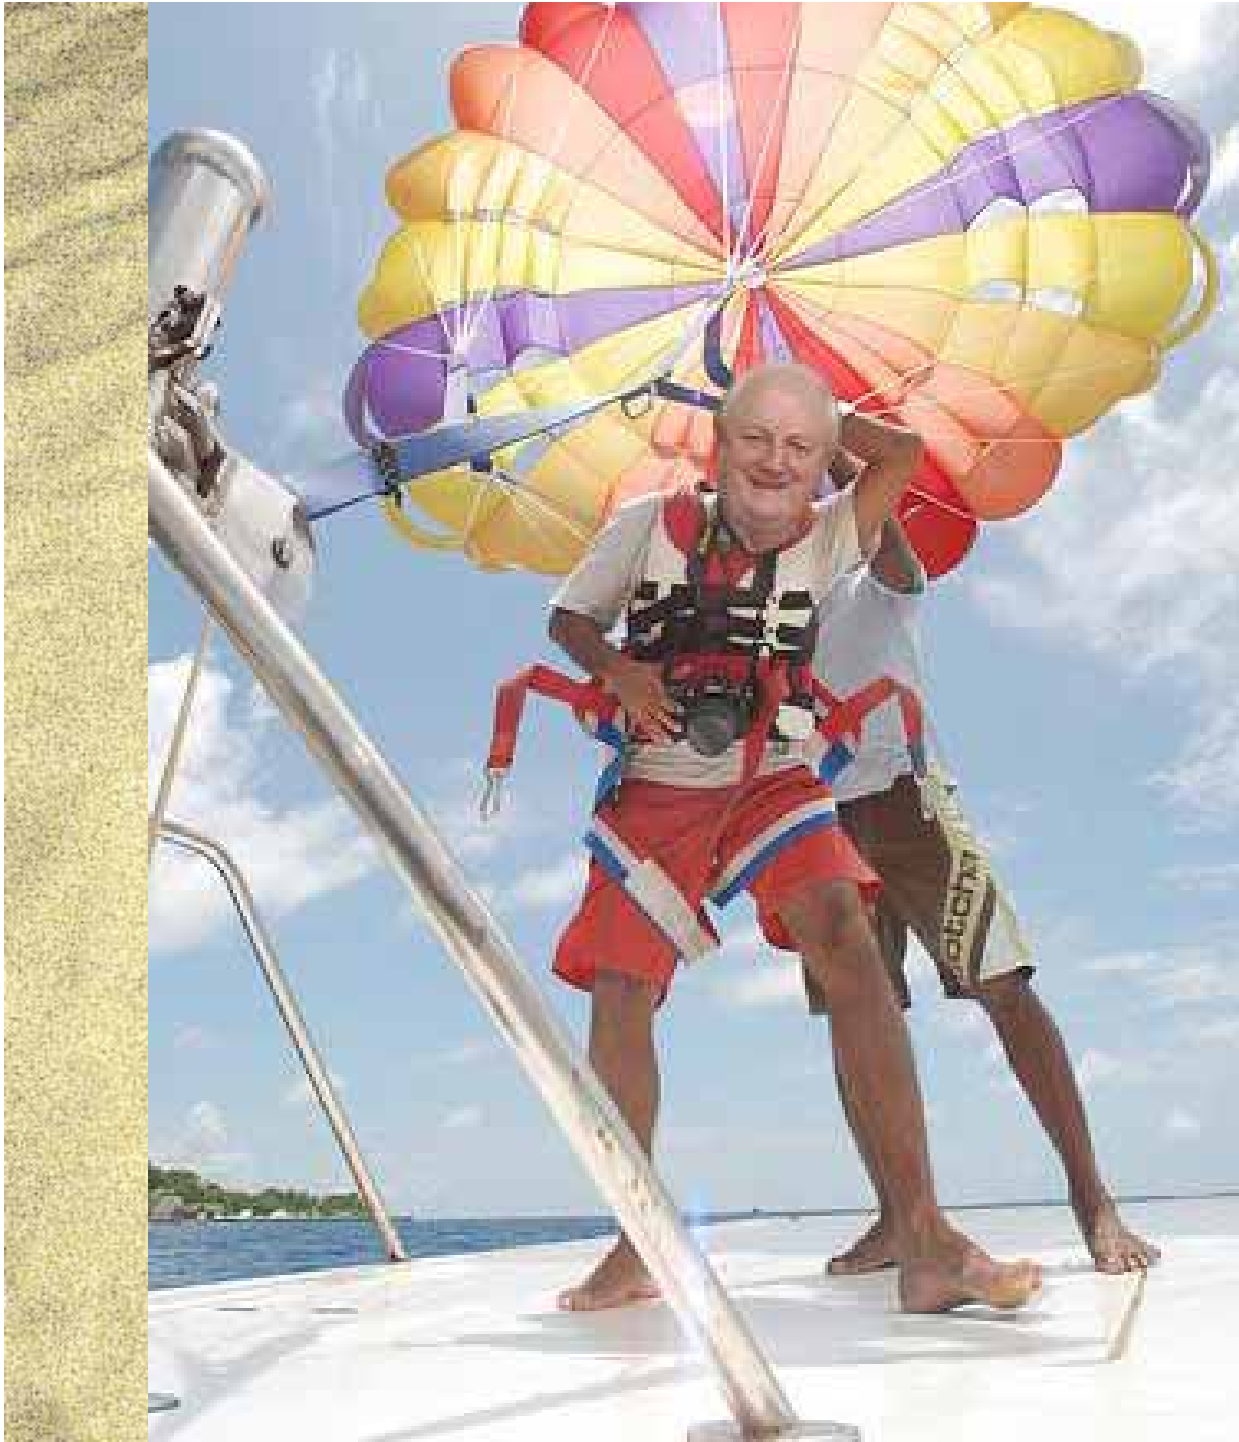

...of all sorts...

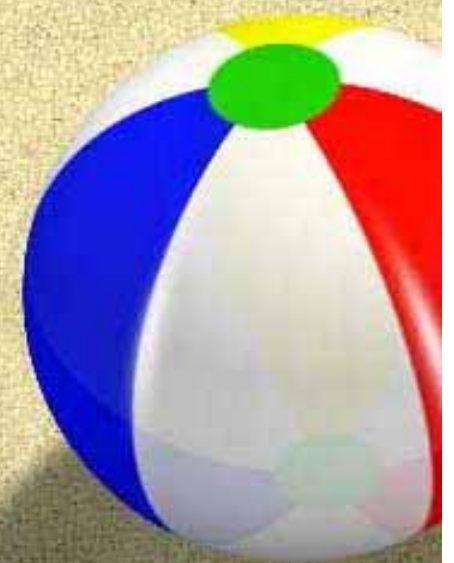

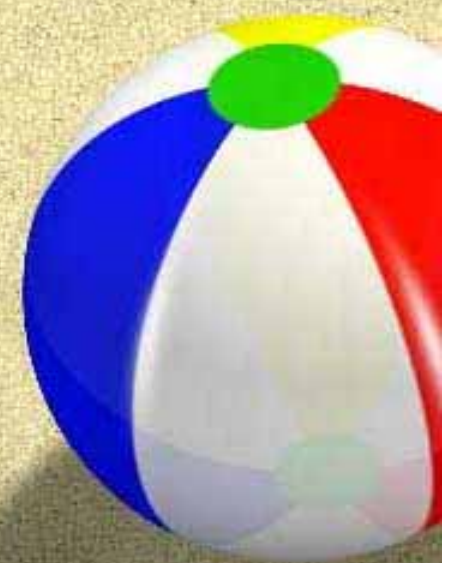

...and...

(Hey, Scotch and Water still counts!)

He has even tried some more Florida-specific pursuits...

He has even demonstrated skills he never got to display in Dayton.

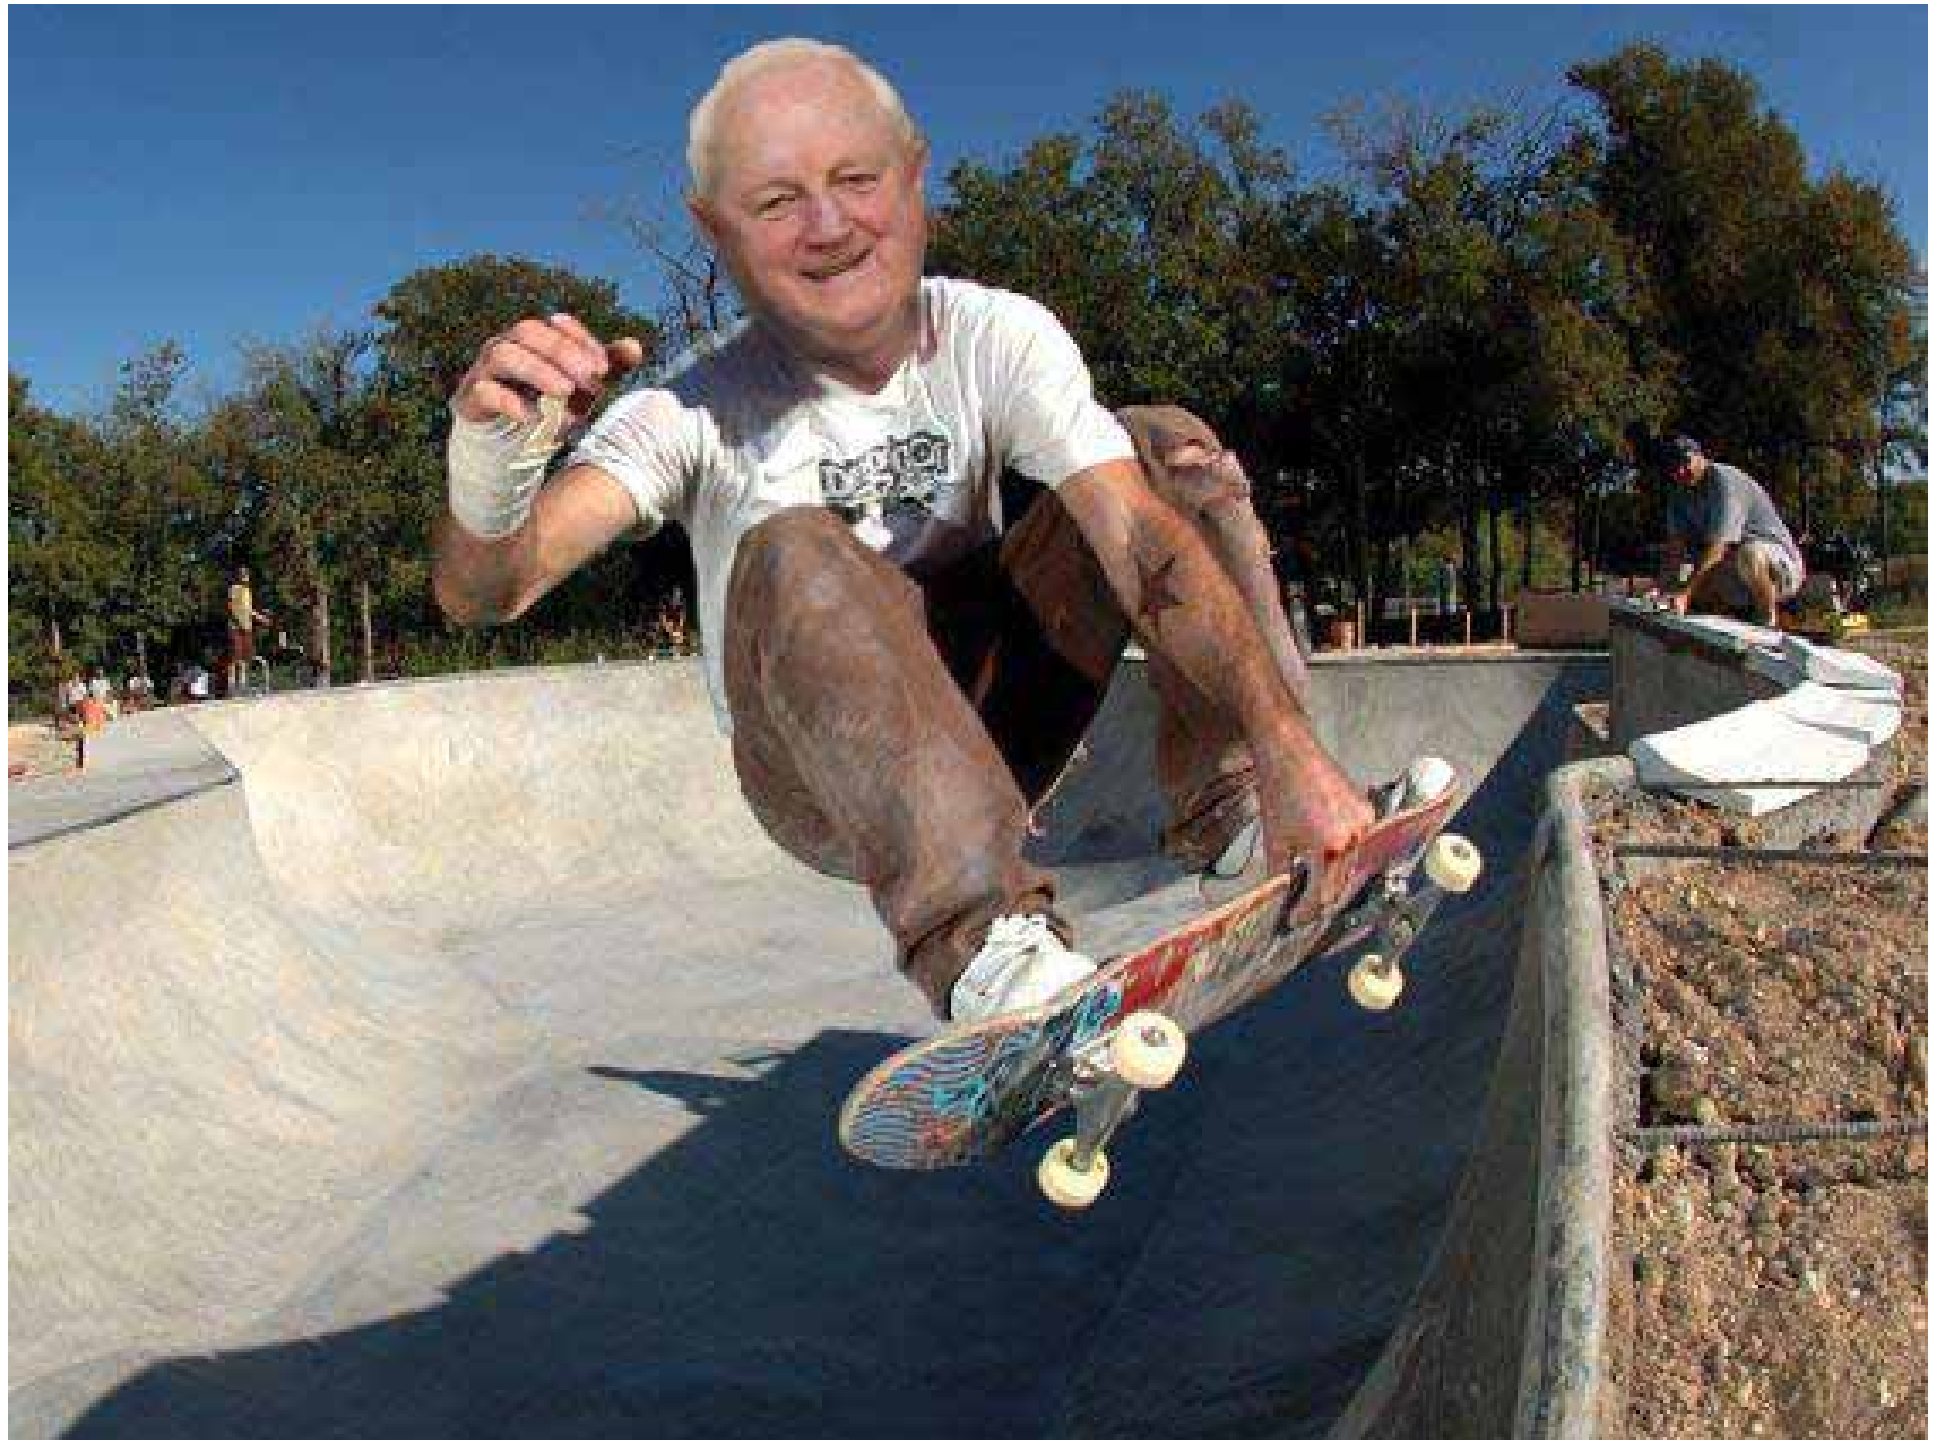

Showing athleticism...

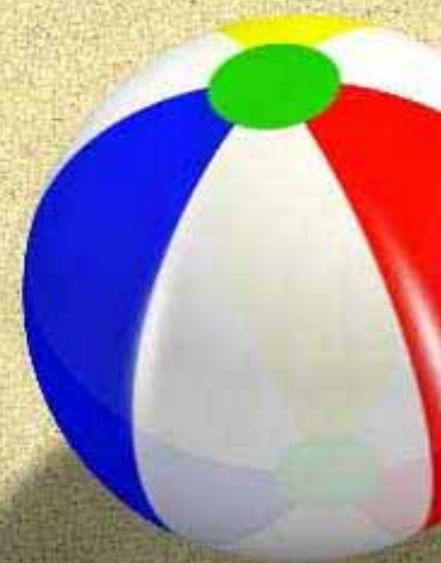

...daring...

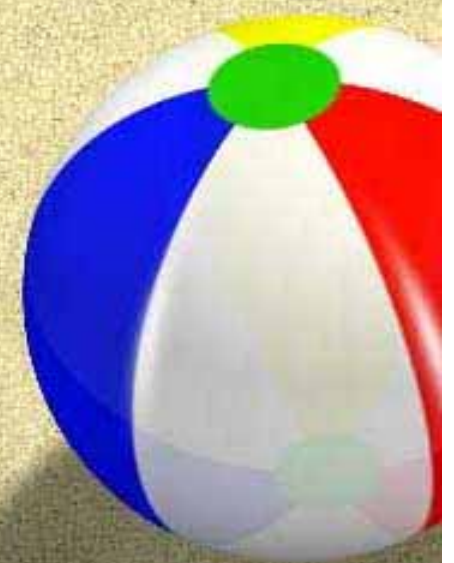

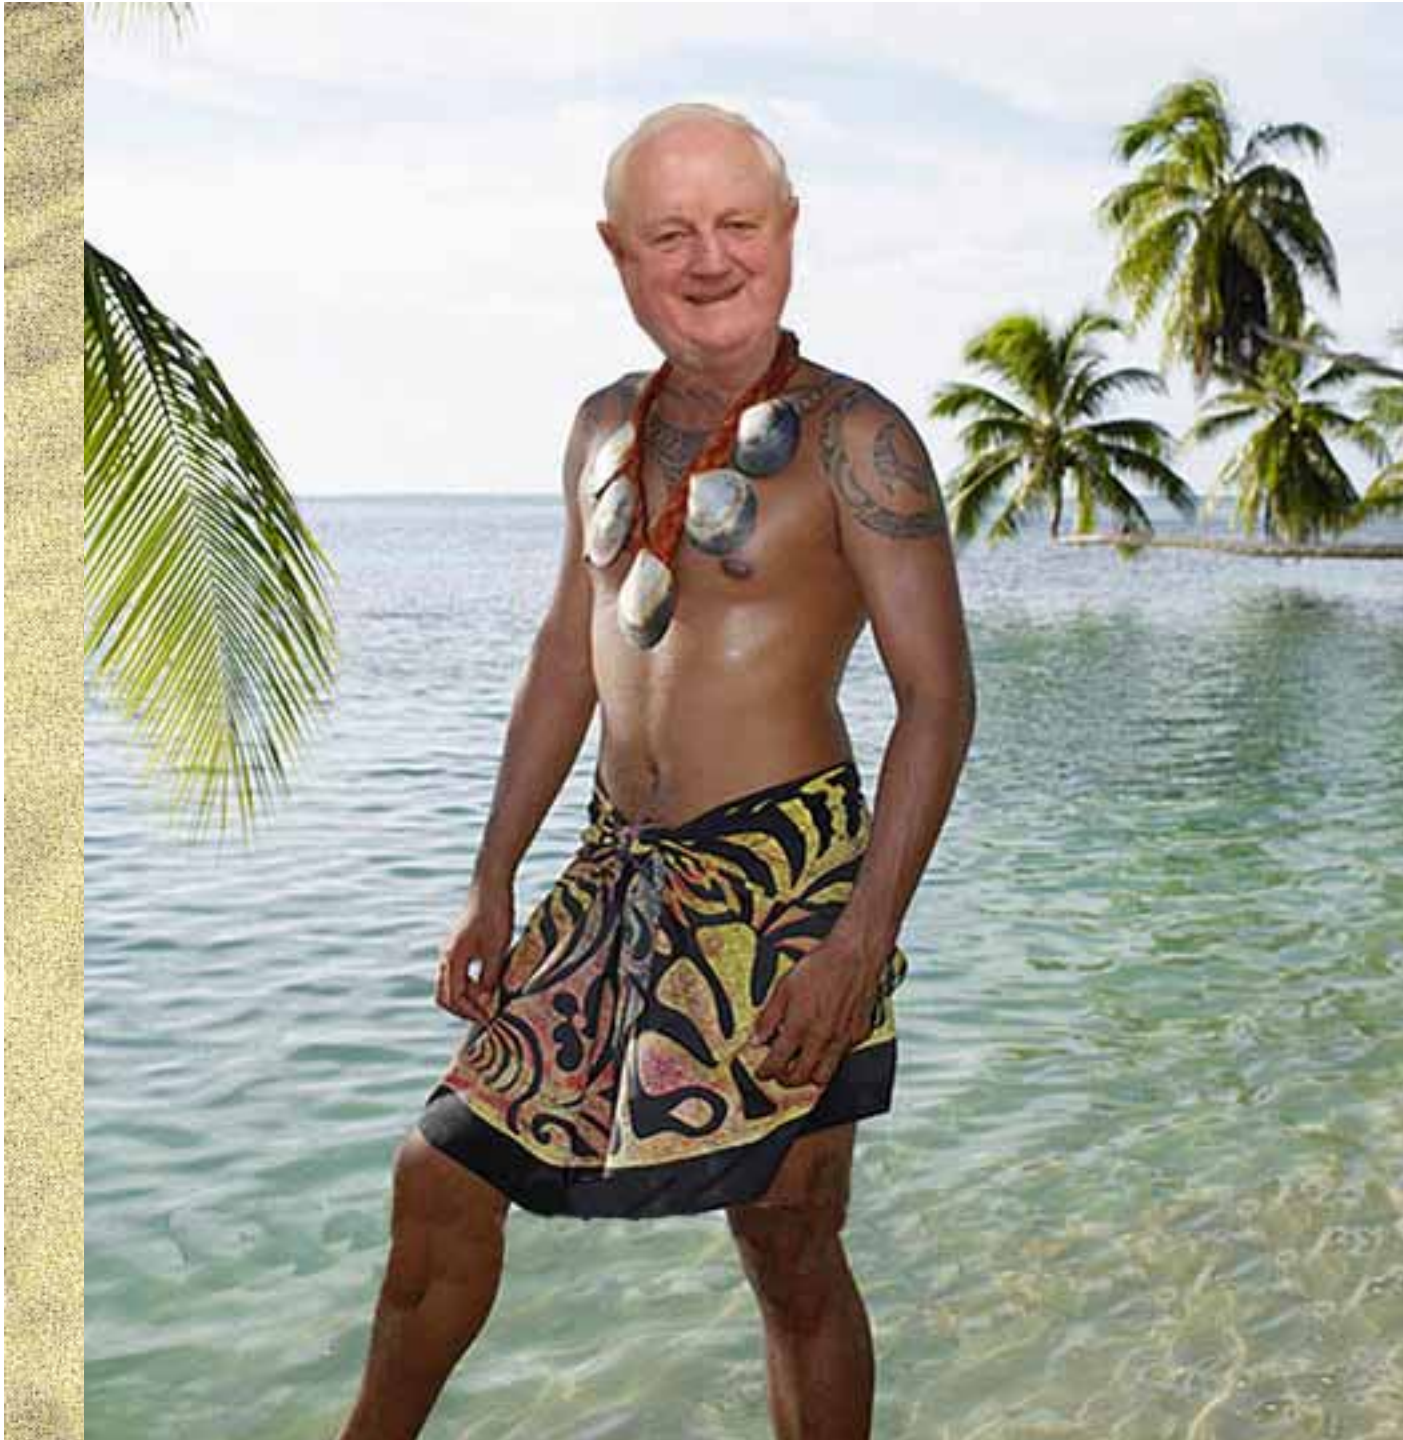

...and some killer
dance moves.

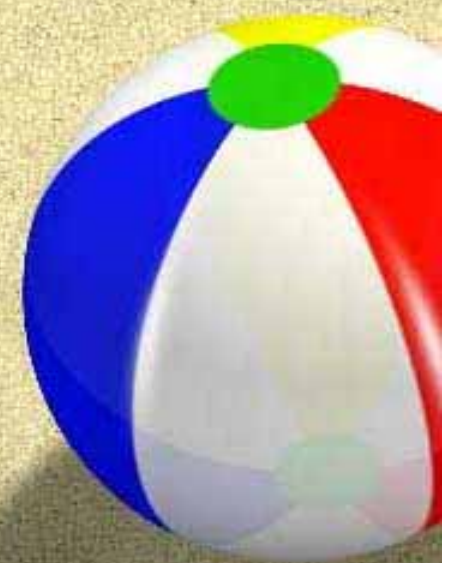

In short, Father Pat seems to have everything it takes to pass for a native.

So, Father Pat,
although you are leaving
we'll hold back the tears,
keep the wind at your back and enjoy our good...

Cheers!
